Lost in darkest days
Drowning in shame
Where light seemed lost
Stuck in desert days
Til mercy came
And saved my heart

Far as East from West
You took my past
And shattered it
Grace I don't deserve
You loved me first
My soul will sing

God you're faithful as the sunrise
Surely you'll never leave
And your goodness lasts a lifetime
The promises you have for me Are forever
Captured in wonder
Light found within your love
Lord you're constant as the sunrise
I know you'll never leave

Now I understand
Your gracious hand
Has carried me
Here I've found my home
Where I belong
Forever free
